PROFILE INFORMATION

I am a BSIT student at Pamantasan ng Lungsod ng San Pablo, specializing in Software Development. Through my studies, I am building a strong foundation in IT principles, programming, and problem-solving. Passionate about leveraging technology to develop innovative solutions, I am eager to apply my skills in real-world projects that enhance efficiency and user experience. With a proactive and detail-oriented mindset, I strive to contribute meaningfully to dynamic and collaborative development environments.
